UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE

COMES NOW, the Defendant, Amy J. Mendez, by and through her counsel, Sean E. Underwood, with the consent of counsel for the United States, and moves to continue the upcoming initial hearing of this case that is currently scheduled on June 11, 2015 and states as follows:

1. The initial court appearance in this case is currently scheduled for June 11, 2015. The case involves a speeding charge pursuant to 36 C.F.R. 4.21(c). Counsel is retained but has a prior scheduling conflict with a pre-scheduled trial in Fairfax County, Virginia on the current hearing date.
2. Defendant, by and through counsel, respectfully requests that this matter be continued to July 16, 2015. Upon information and belief, counsel is advised that July 16, 2015 is a regular court date for the officer who issued the ticket.
3. The United States, by and through its counsel, has consented to the relief sought in this motion.
4. A continuance of this case will not cause undue prejudice to any person or party.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated herein, the defendant, with consent of the United States, respectfully moves this Honorable Court for a continuance of the June 11, 2015 hearing to July 16, 2015.
